Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from True Liberalism and Compulsory Service: An Appeal to the British Working Man The present appeal to Liberals was written in answer to the false Liberalism (as it seems to us) of Mr. C. P. Trevelyan s recent pamphlet, entitled Democracy and Compulsory Service. We have suggested to Mr. Trevelyan a scheme which seemed to offer far more real guarantees of truth than the ordinary method of publication in separate pamphlets. If this plea of ours had been based upon mere mis-statements and misunderstandings (as we contend that his is) then our offer would have enabled him to expose us with the greatest ease. But he has declined our challenge to submit the question to the arbitration of the British public; and we are thus reluctantly compelled to publish our own statement of the case in a separate form. Mr. Trevelyan s pamphlet, however, is easily obtainable; it is published at a penny by the National League of Young Liberals, Dacre House, Victoria Street, S.W. All our readers should buy this pamphlet in order to compare Mr. Trevelyan s actual words with our criticism. The letters in which we offered him full opportunities of contradicting us, together with his replies, are printed in Appendix A to this present publication. It is difficult to understand why Mr. Trevelyan should regard it as inevitable that a discussion of this kind should degenerate into mere verbal quibbling. In the instance he gives, the verbal minutiae are a new importation of his own. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
