It has stood an hundred and twenty-three years. It is the oldest temple in this city . Christ Church, its ancient neighbor, is its junior by more than two years, and the Old South by nearly nine. It has been an object of sacred interest to many generations. Its image has been connected with the idea of God, in the minds of myriads who have been horn, and lived, and died, within sight of its spire. Hallowed associations gather thickly around it. Its walls are hung with the memorials of ancient days. Shadowy processions of the sainted dead seem to move along its aisles; and a solemn chant, as of many voices, known and unknown, mingling in psalms and prayers, to swell beneath its roof.
