Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Backwoods Poems The little book here presented embraces the rhymes and poems written by me in a period of thirty years, beginning with my boyhood. All of them have already been laid before the public in newspapers and periodicals; but, like autumnal leaves cast on the rushing stream, they have been swept away, and only the writer s scrap-book has saved them from oblivion. It is not through affectation that I have given my book the title it bears. I chose this title in my boyhood, when I first conceived the design of publishing, some day, a book of poems. Nor is the title inappropriate. While I was yet an infant, my father, with his family, settled down in a wilderness, where I grew up with the population, rarely ever going out of the neighborhood for forty years. Save what I learned from books and newspapers, and from the conversation of those into whose society I was thrown - The little world in which I lived. Was all the world I knew. The old log school-house with a single window and a single door-described in one of my earlier pieces-was my alma mater; the green woods were my campus; and if I climbed Parnassus, twas not with Homer, by dint o Greek, but with trusty dogs, chasing the mottle-coated hare over the bush-covered hillock. Thus isolated and thus surrounded, both my intellectual and my moral nature could not fail to receive a coloring, which, reflected on my rhythmic effusions, renders the appellation, Backwoods Poems, peculiarly significant. I am well aware, that there are many crudities and imperfections in these poems, particularly in the earlier pieces....
